A Garden for a Groundhog By Lorna Balian

Mr. and Mrs. O'Leary were quite content on their small farm. There was just enough room for their cottage, their animals and their vegetable garden. Unfortunately, there was also a groundhog who loved vegetables just as much as the O'Learys did.

Will the O'Learys get to harvest anything but zucchini this year? Not if the groundhog has anything to do with it!

Editorial Review

From School Library Journal

Kindergarten-Grade 3 A delightful book especially right for reading around Groundhog's Day. During the winter, the O'Learys feast on the bounty from their summer garden, and Groundhog hibernates in his burrow home beneath the apple tree. The O'Learys know that the groundhog does not come forth on February 2 to forecast the weather but rather to check if the O'Leary garden is planted. Mr. O'Leary's plan to keep the groundhog out of their vegetables has one flaw, though, which is humorously revealed on the final page.

Full-color illustrations in soft hues add to the aura of warmth and gentleness which permeates the story. A delight to read and share. Sure to join other Balian titles as a much-read favorite. Sharron McElmeel, Cedar Rapids Community Schools, Iowa
