Loving John: The Untold Story By May Pang, Henry Edwards

If you're a Beatles person, chances are you know about John's 18-month "lost weekend" in which he was separated from Yoko. What you may not know is that Yoko herself orchestrated this "weekend," even handpicking a young woman, May Pang, to serve as John's mistress. It's not difficult to conclude that Yoko just wanted the notoriously jealous John out of her hair in order to carry out her own affairs with younger men. This is May's story. I understand the criticism of this book. The author recreates conversations, which is always thorny territory. John was a very verbose guy, and his words are condensed here into sentences simpler than what he probably used. That said, we know many of the stories here are factual, as they've been confirmed by photos, news articles, and other eyewitnesses.
