Editorial Review

Review

This book, full of wonderful references, puts knowledge into the hands of parents. It urges parents to positively advocate for their child. It opens the door to many of the possibilities that are out there in the realm of alternative education, ideas to try at home, college planning and academic competitions. --Heidi Brewer, East Valley Parenting Advice Examiner

One could have all the talent in the world, but if it isn't nurtured, it'll go to waste. "Raising a Gifted Child: A Parenting Success Handbook" is a guide to parents who want to give their talented children all the tools they need to maximize their potential for the future. Just like those with learning disabilities, the other extreme need special care to assist them, and "Raising a Gifted Child" should be in the bookshelf of every parent of a gifted child. --Midwest Book Review

About the Author
