Editorial Review

From Booklist

The third book in the Confectionately Yours series continues the interpersonal dynamics of earlier titles as Hayley adjusts to life above Gran's tea shop following her parents' divorce. Foremost is Hayley's relationship with Artemis, her ex-best friend, as they slowly reconcile. Action centers on a talent show she and friend Meghan organize with Artemis' reluctant help. The overarching theme—accepting your friends despite their flaws—develops throughout the story, interspersed with Hayley's "confessions" to the reader and elaborate cupcake recipes. This cozy read with a diverse cast and just a hint of romance will appeal to girls looking for realistic fiction without the grit. Grades 4-7. --Suzanne Harold
