Editorial Review

Review

"One particular thing I personally like in Anne's book is the use of an introduction at the beginning of each design. To me this provides the reader with a very vivid description of the southwest and enables them to understand how Anne drew her inspiration to create that particular garment." --Peacefully Knitting & More

"Anne is an amazing photographer, writer, knitwear designer, indie yarn dyer and all-around fiberista. Her technical background in historical fashion design and her love for fiber and color shines through in all of her work... Anne's attention to detail and sophisticated color sensibilities shine through in this carefully curated collection of hand knits." --Slate Falls Press

"Anne visually captures the feeling of being a free spirit. The landscapes and the jewelry and the relaxed posture all add up to the essence of the story of free spirits in every place and every time." --Talitha Kuomi Design

"There is enough variety here to satisfy most knitters, with simple stockinette, cables, lace and colorwork designs. Projects for men are included." --My Central Jersey's "In Stitches" column
