Editorial Review

Review

"Not at all intimidating to someone who is new to Japanese cooking. Easy, clear instructions with recommendation on how to store and how long - all vital information. "

- Susan Pridmore, The Wimpy Vegetarian

"The good thing this book does is that it gives a history on the outset, background, and explains in detail the tools needed for good Japanese cooking, and it's a relief to know that most of the cooking can be done by regular everyday tools rather than exotic ones that are hard to pronounce and even harder to find."

- Minnie Gupta, The Lady 8 Home

"I've always been intrigued by the Asian food section ... however, I've often been confused about what the products are and how they can be combined to create a delicious dish. Like a lot of families in our area of southeast Georgia, our exposure to Japanese food has been limited to Japanese steakhouses featuring hibachi cooking and communal dining...With Japanese Cooking Made Simple, I'll be able to solve both of these issues: familiarizing myself with Asian ingredients and using those ingredients to create authentic Japanese dishes for my family."

- Kim McCallie, Well Seasoned Life
