Last Letters from Stalingrad From William Morrow & Company

Book synopsis: A short stunning collection of thirty-nine letters from doomed German soldiers of the Sixth Army as they awaited their fate outside Stalingrad. These letters were sent out on the last plane. Many believe that these letters are forgeries but, forgeries or not, they are compelling and powerful. Whether written by men facing certain death or written for propaganda purposes to create a fiction about what enemy soldiers might say if facing certain death - this book is nonetheless remarkable and unforgettable.
