Pastoral (Vintage International) By Nevil Shute

World War II pilot Peter Marshall leads the most successful bombing crew at his airbase, having survived an unusual number of extremely dangerous missions over Germany. However, when Peter falls hopelessly in love with an attractive WAAF officer—one who insists that wartime duties should take precedence over emotions—his concentration begins to suffer. Soon it looks as though his perfect run of successful missions may be at risk—along with the lives of Peter and his men—unless she can be persuaded to relent.

Editorial Review

Review

“One of the happiest books which war has called into being.” —Sunday Times (London)

“A first-class love story. . . . Shute tells it superbly well. The tenseness and tenderness is heightened by two breathless descriptions of raids over Germany.” —John Betjeman

About the Author

Nevil Shute Norway was born on 17 January 1899 in Ealing, London. After attending the Dragon School and Shrewsbury School, he studied Engineering Science at Balliol College, Oxford.
