Editorial Review

Review

"This innovative work uses animals to rethink humans and concepts of humanity in new and compelling ways, from the gripping first chapter, 'Screaming Monkeys,' to the metaphorical bull-baiting of the Epilogue. A stimulating and important addition to the cultural history of early modern England." -- Barry Reay, professor of history at the University of Auckland and author of Popular Cultures in England, 1550-1750

About the Author

Erica Fudge is Lecturer in the School of Historical and Cultural Studies at Bath Spa University College.
